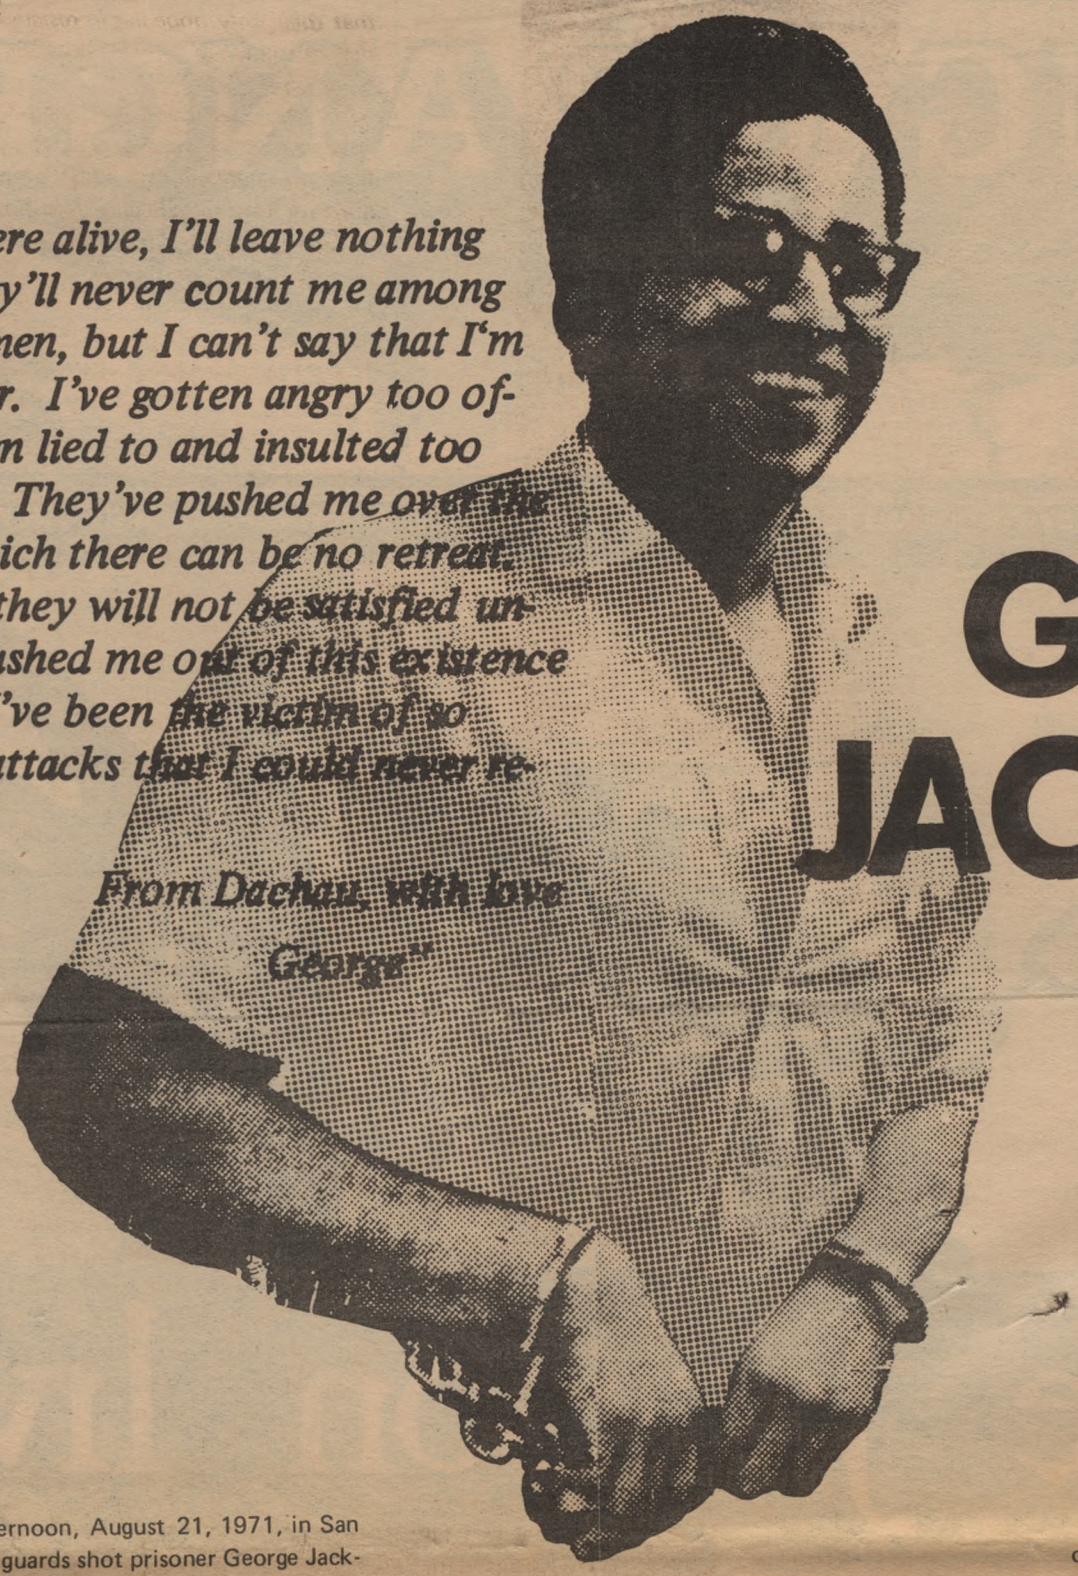
George Jackson lives



"If I leave here alive, I'll leave nothing behind. They'll never count me among the broken men, but I can't say that I'm normal either. I've gotten angry too often. I've been lied to and insulted too many times. They've pushed me over the line from which there can be no retreat. I know that they will not be satisfied until they've pushed me out of this existence altogether. I've been the victim of so many racist attacks that I could never relax again . . .

From Dachau, with love

GEORGE JACKSON

On Saturday afternoon, August 21, 1971, in San Quentin prison, prison guards shot prisoner George Jackson dead. He was being held in the maximum security "adjustment center" of the prison and was prepared to plead innocent, along with two other brothers, Fleeta Drumgo and John Clutchette, to charges of murdering a prison guard on January 19, 1969. George, Fleeta and John (the Soledad Brothers) were to go to trial in 2 days. The prison has been increasingly uptight as the trial drew closer. The guards have gone on strike demanding more weapons to use against the inmates.

The inmates are all behind the Soledad Brothers and some of them had gone on hunger strikes to protest the brutal conditions in the prison. The prison officials at San Quentin have been freaking out at all the attention that the Soledad case, particularly George Jackson, has drawn to their fascist institution. And now, with the trial due and George's lawyer being confident they'd prove his innocence; with prisoners all over the country learning from George's example of courage and revolutionary spirit; with reporters and lawyers moving in and out and around the prison keeping an eye on this tense situation - the prison officials make a decision. They decide George would try to escape.

That's what we heard. He tried to escape and they shot him dead. For 3 days after the murder, no one was allowed into San Quentin - no relatives, no lawyers, no press. John Clutchette and Fleeta Drumgo were not allowed to go to a previously scheduled hearing about their case on Monday. Every two hours or so for the 3 days there was another press statement from the warden to clarify "what happened". According to Associate Warden James Park, a lawyer named Stephen Bingham had smuggled a gun in to George in spite of the elaborate system of metal detectors and many careful searches

Park said George hid the gun and two clips of bullets in his hair, and that he pulled the gun on guards and opened the cells to release the other 26 prisoners on the floor. Then, Park said, he ran to escape through the adjoining courtyard - a box canyon - an open area surrounded by a 20 foot brick wall with two guard towers manned by special sharpshooters. To further complicate things, four others were killed - two guards and two white prisoners who served as attendants on the tier. Park said their throats had been slashed, and one

Ruchell

Then, John Clutchette managed to smuggle a note out to describe what really happened: when guards started firing into the cell block, George realized they were after him and ran out into the yard to draw their fire away from the other prisoners. When he was first shot in the back he wasn't dead so another guard came up and shot him in the head.

The 26 remaining prisoners were being beaten and tortured because they wouldn't back up the stories that Warden Nelson and Associate Warden Park were giving to the press. This is part of the affidavit that each of the 26 signed:

The officers . . . opened the cell gates and ordered us to come from our cells. Thereafter gunshots or what appeared to be gun shots went off and guards armed with guns entered the cell block and ordered us to come out or be killed. We were ordered to take off all our clothes and walk through the cell one at a time. Each of us were given vicious physical beating by prison guards' blackjacks, clubs, and guns. We were handcuffed and made to lie on the ground naked from approximately four p.m. to ten p.m.. . . . One inmate, Allen Mancino who was hand and leg chained on the ground, begged the guards to loosen the handcuffs on him. He was told to keep his mouth shut by a guard, who shot part of his leg off with a rifle. Mancino was made to lay begging for a doctor for approximately one hour before the guard would allow him moved. We were made to lay on the ground while prison guards threatened to kill us and shot all around. At approximately ten p.m. guards interrogated again."

Finally, on Tuesday, August 24th, Fleeta and John were allowed to go to their hearing. They smuggled out the affidavit and tried to present it to the Court but Judge Allen wouldn't let them talk about what was going on at San Quentin. The Judge said, "There's no proof that that's going on, it's just an allegation." At that point Fleeta & John stood up very painfully. Their heads had been shaved & they removed their shirts revealing backs covered with welts and bruises & burns. John Thorne, who was George Jacksons lawyer, said, "The reason they weren't here yesterday is that the guards hadn't finished beating them." Fleeta said, "They told me I would be dead in three days." Somebody called out, "What happened to George?" Fleeta turned and said, "They murdered him." The Judge then turned to George's lawyer and said he wouldn't listen to him because he had no client. A voice

SOLEDAD BROTHERS

Why did they kill him? To understand why is to understand how much this system is threatened by beautiful revolutionary brothers like Goerge Jackson. He was born in 1941 in a black ghetto in Chicago where he began his struggle, the struggle of all black people, for survival. When he was 15 his family moved to LA. In 1960 he was accused of robbing a gas station of $70. He accepted a deal with the DA and agreed to confess (to save court costs for the county) in return for a "light" sentence. He got 1 to life. He was 18 then, and he never left prison again except for court appearances.

After serving 9 unjust years and still waiting for parole, George, Fleeta Drumgo and John Clutchette were accused of killing a prison guard at Soledad prison. The guard was allegedly thrown off a catwalk in retaliation for the deaths of three black inmates who had been gunned down in the prison yard by a guard firing from a tower. The three accused became known as the Soledad Brothers. George was viewed by prison officials as "one to get rid of." He read & wrote constantly. He studied law & helped other prisoners with their legal cases. He did excercises to keep in good physical shape. From inside prison, George wrote letters to his younger brother Jonathan, telling him everything he had ever learned about how to survive as a black man in this degrading and hostile society. In other letters he explained the racism that exists inside the prisons and he couldn't believe that white prisoners in cells just like his didn't understand that they had more in common than differences. They were all in jail for pretty much the same reasons, they were in the same prisons locked away in the same cells, brutalized by the same guards and yet they thought they were better. They fought with blacks instead of against the guards or officials that were keeping them there. Huey Newton wrote about George Jackson:

"George Jackson is a living legend throughtout the prison system. Every inmate that I've talked to, every convict who has been around the California prisons for any length of time, knows about George and has high regard for him. Even some of the white "racist" inmates have respect for him because they view him as a man who is totally straight. They know George is a "for real" man. He refused to violate his own integrity or the integrity of his fellow inmates. He refuses to compromise in any way to gain personal privilege. He has stood up and let himself be counted regardless of personal cost. George is a true revolutionary." And in another letter, written in April of 1970, George wrote:

George, Fleeta
John

Growing numbers of blacks are openly passed over when paroles are considered. They have become aware that their only hope lies in resistance. They have learned that resistance is actually possible. The holds are beggining to slip away.

Very few men imprisoned for economic crimes or even crimes of passion against the oppressor feel that they are really guilty. Most of today's black convicts have come to understand that they are the most abused victims of an unrighteous order. Up until now, the prospect of parole has kept us from confronting our captors with any real determination. But now with the living conditions deteriorating, and with the sure knowledge that we are slated for destruction, we have been transformed into an implacable army of liberation.

George's younger brother, Jonathan, joined the army of liberation, too. On August 7th, last year, invaded the San Rafael courthouse single-handed, with a satchel full of handguns, and assault rifle and a shotgun hidden under his raincoat. He gave the guns to three black convicts who were before the judge, took five hostages and as he left Jonathan shouted "Free the Soledad Brothers by 12:30." The pigs fired on them as they were escaping and Jonathan, along with several others was killed. The surviving convict, Ruchell Magee, was on the same tier at San Quentin when George was murdered. Angela Davis is in prison charged with supplying guns to Jonathan.

When Mrs. Georgia Jackson called the prison after hearing a radio report of her son's death, "A guard laughed at me and said he was glad George finally was dead. He told me: "You'll be running out of sons pretty soon. We got one last year and one today."

This is just the beginning of the fascist repression inside the prisons and out. And this is just the beginning of rebellion against repression everywhere. In the courtroom where the surviving Soledad Brothers are on trial, the spirit of George is strong. The Brothers keep talking about the tortures going inside on the prison andthe judge keeps trying to silence them. When he ordered their testimony stricken from the records John Clutchettes mother refused to be silent and was thrown out of the courtroom. Then the people in the courtroom refused to be silent and pigs clubbed the people to the try to keep them silent. Blood flowed in the halls of "justice".

WE WILL NOT BE SILENT!

A parade of Catholics marches through the Suffolk housing project on the outskirts of Belfast. In dawn raids that morning, authorities had arrested 300 IRA suspects. They were held without trial under special laws.

IRELAND

Young boys attacking tanks with molotovs....12,500 foreign soldiers patrolling the streets....women and children putting up barricades....street battles....automatic weapon fire....urban guerilla war. A people fighting for it's very survival. It could be Igeria before independence or Vietnam today. But it's not. It's Ireland.

Why? It all began nearly four centuries ago when English rulers took over Ulster (Northern Ireland) and simply gave large plantations to English overlords. At the same time these overlords brought Scots workers instead of hiring the local Irish Catholic workers. The Scots were Protestant and loyal to England. As more and more land-hungry nobles came to Ulster, more and more work-hungry peasants followed. This created a very large community of Protestants which was surrounded by a hostile Catholic population. It left the Catholics and the Protestants fighting each other for their survival while the original land thieves sat back and reaped the profits of cheap labor. The bitterness of the original invasion has been passed on from generation to generation. Struggles over who will govern-the Irish or Britain-and therefore control the economy have gone on and on and are still going on today. Britain has maintained the biggest chunk of the pie. And in Ireland, religion, instead of skin color, marks the identity of the two groups. This doesn't mean that most of the Protestants are rich, they're not-most of them get about one crumb more a week than the Catholics. But Protestants feel that any move against oppression that the Catholics make will mean less for them. So they fight the Catholics rather than the government that is robbing both groups. Today, only 1/3 of the Ulster population is Catholic. They are a minority in their own country. Catholics are the Blacks of Northern Ireland. They are the last hired and the first fired. They have worse schools, worse housing and in general endure discriminating slurs on their character. Many Catholics have had to leave the North to seek a better life in the south or even Australia.

The latest troubles, which began in 1969, were mainly caused by two things: The economic situation in the north is very bad. About 15 per cent of the work force-and an even higher percentage of Catholics-is unemployed. The competition for jobs is very heavy and the jobs usually go first to Protestants. And, the Catholic civil rights movement, led by Bernadette Devlin, began with Catholic involvement in civil rights marches and demonstrations. The government reacted so viciously to these demonstrations that the average Catholic became radicalized and more militant.

In the summer of 1969 British troops were sent in to put down disturbances. At first, both Catholics and Protestants viewed it as a breathing spell. But it became increasingly clear that the troops were not "peacemakers" but instead they created more problems. The troops were going after Catholics who were throwing rocks while at the same time they ignored Protestant right-wingers sniping at Catholics. And,on August 9th, this year, 300 people-all Catholics-were rounded up by the British troops and have been "indefinitely interred" without a trial. The level of the struggle went up. British soldiers were offed, factories burned and barricades were thrown up.

There is a variety of leadership for the Catholic community to look to. There is the Civil Rights Association which basically calls for civil disobedience. Then the People's Democracy, and the I.R.A. which split into two groups in January 1970-the Provisionals and the Officials. The Provisionals Army recruits and trains men to do sabotage and armed struggle. The Officials are into street organizing, mass education, building the labor movement and building resistance to repression. They did blow up a bank about a month ago. They see socialism as the solution when the smoke dies down. The Provisionals will make a statement on their program and policies in about a week.

But all the organizations are people's organizations and they are united in the struggle. There is a Catholic community in Londonderry called Bogside where a coalition of the various organizations literally runs the scene. The People are not paying rent or taxes and last Friday they called for a mass strike which was almost 100% effective, that is all work stopped including shipping and factories. This protest spread a couple of hundred miles south.

The People's morale is high. The Provisional Army continues to give color guard funeral services for their dead-even though they are the most wanted men in Ireland. Brothers and sisters are fighting side by side in the streets against Protestant right-wingers and British troops. Women have organized themselves to stand guard in the streets and signal, by beating on garbage can lids, when the troops come near. Everyone is in the struggle.

As usual, the press coverage has been less than accurate. For instance, they keep referring to the "religious war" as if it's some mystical war over who's side god is on instead of an economic and power struggle. British Intelligence has been masquerading as IRA and threatening neutral Protestants-the papers report IRA threatening them. But the press did manage to print both sides on August 15th. Beneral Tickell, the British general in charge of the troops, indicated that the leaders of the IRA had been rounded up among the 300 people they had jailed. He said, "We have wiped out the hard core of them." But, at the same time, only 2 miles away, Joseph Cahill, the leader of the Provisionals and one of the most wanted men in Ireland, held a public press conference. He was not afraid even though he was right under the British noses and said, "The fight goes on!"

ERIN GO BRAGH!
IRELAND FOREVER!

PEOPLE'S GRAPEVINE

PIG HARRASSMENT AT P.B.C.

A lot of things are going on in P.B.C. just as in many other neighborhoods. But there are two main issues that are being dealt with at this time.

The first case concerns Mr. Gonzales, who is being attacked by the Building Dept. The nature of the attack stems from certain people who live in the neighborhood and believe that they have complete control over the area. They think that they can run everybody the way they feel like. As in most cases the building inspector didn't just happen by. The truth is that he was pressured by certain people, the main person being the man next door. And the real reasons why they are giving Mr. Gonzales trouble is because he is friendly with the brothers and sisters of the hood, he also lets Taxi practice in his basement 3 days a week, and another factor being that he is a Mexican. These self made gods are trying to harass and intimidate Mr. Gonzales into leaving the neighborhood.

Brothers and sisters have seen through the lies of these people and are helping to repair all of the so-called flaws with Mr. Gonzales' house. We will not let him be intimidated be a few fascist people. Instead we list our demands against the man nest door.

1. To condemn the rear building of 1715 W. Fletcher, because it has been empty for years and is a breeding place for rats. This man's house is the real eye-sore of the neighborhood with its broken windows and deteriorating roof.

The second case is the attempt to railroad a brother in the hood to 10 years in jail. Brother Pete was the victim of an unprovoked attack by a drunken man with a baseball bat. In self-defense Pete threw a bottle at his crazed attacker. This fool then called the police and he pressed charges. The man with the baseball bat wasn't charged at all even though he tried to strike an 8 month pregnant woman.

The police naturally are on the side of the guy with the bat and have lied constantly in court. This is clearly a railroad job because the pigs have made constant remarks on how they are going to put Pete away for a long time and "we will do anything to put him away."

Pete has been indicted by a Grand Jury and his case will come to trial in a few months, the date isn't certain yet. We are demanding that Pete be set free from this absurd charge and the real provacateur be jailed. We know that Pete was only righteously defending himself against an attack.

BROTHER PETE FROM P.B.C.

G.I.'s DESERTING

The US imperialist army is very upset with all the brothers who are sick and tired of being forced to fight a war they don't believe in. These brothers are voting with their feet-by deserting. For the first 10 months of fiscal year 1971, ending June 30, 1971, 68,499 GI'S deserted. This is equivelant to 4½ combat divisions-that's why the Pentagon is so upset. This means that out of every 1,000 men in the army, 62.6 deserts. Right On!

APARTMENT HUNTING

Dear Angry—

I find that having 8 children still living at home is a crime! I've been looking for an apartment for six months, but because of the size of our family, no one wants to rent to us. We have four boys and four girls. The oldest (ages 18, 20 and 22) all work. The oldest has "served his country" and the other two are about to be drafted and wonder if it's worth it. Their father served in World War II to have a better world for our children. Now, what's so great if we can't even find a place to live.

We did have an apartment, but with a landlady who turned off our door bell so our children couldn't ring the bell (she wouldn't let them use the back entrance). We weren't to flush the toilet after 12, could not start housework before 11 am so as not to wake her son. Couldn't have any company. I could go on and on with her rules. When we found we just could not comply with a new set of rules each week she and sons threatened us with violence. We had no choice but to put our furniture in storage and split up our family. We found a place for only three of us and my husband and other five children live with our married daughter who is being evicted this week because she took us in.

I've gone to Alderman Singer, but I guess he is more interested in his latest campaign for little bags and shovels to carry around to clean up after the dogs. I've been to the urban progress centers, they sent me to CHA. CHA sent me a list of managers of buildings, but they tell me CHA must give them the OK first. I've gone to real estate offices to be told 4 bedroom apartments rent for $400 or more. I've called all the available ads in the papers and have seen over 100 apartments in the past 3 months but none were rented to us. So now where do I go? We aren't asking for charity. We only want an apartment so our family can be together. If we don't have a home soon, the county is threatening to put our 7, 8 and 9 year old children in Audey Home.

Please, isn't there someone who will rent to us in this city?

*Call Angry immediately if you know of an apartment for 10 people—at least 4 bedrooms.

LINCOLN PARK FAMILY BEATEN & JAILED

The afternoon of Aug. 7th a sister and her family, from Lincoln Ave. were arrested and beaten by pigs.

The sister, age 23, was sitting in the Harvest Moon waiting for a long distance phone call and having a beer with a friend.

Two plainclothes pigs started poking around and asked the sister for her ID. She said she didn't have any but one could come upstairs and she would see if she could find them. One of the pigs came upstairs with her and she told him to wait in the hall. When she got in her apartment her 12 day old baby was crying so she picked him up. Meanwhile the pig starts banging on the door and wakes up the girls mother and father who were asleep. The sister opens the door and he says you're under arrest, so she slams the door agian. While this was going on the girls mother went out the back door for help from the people. The other pig immediately ran up the stairs and the two pigs broke the door. They grabbed the baby from the sisters arms and threw it down on the bed giving it a bruise on its forehead. By this time some people from the block had come up. They saw the pigs pull on and throw the baby. The people's righteous anger toward the pigs couldn't be stopped. One pig got the shit kicked out of him. Then their reinforcements came, about 50 pigs came charging up the stairs at Lincoln Ave. The mad dogs put 50 stitches in the sisters fathers head. 6 people were arrested including the girls mother and father. They were held at the 19th dist. for the ransom for $100 each.

While in the pig pen the racist nature of the pigs became clear. The sister told the pigs she had to go to the bathroom and they told her, "piss on your—self, all Indians do."

PROTEST BY CHINESE STUDENTS

On Saturday, August 7, the Tiao-yo Tai Action Committe held a demonstration in the Civic Center protesting British colonialists. The British still control the island of Hong Kong and the British police have been brutally attacking the Chinese people who live in Hong Kong. The reason the Chinese students had the protest here was to direct it at the British consul general here.

MAN DIES IN PIG WAGON

Three brothers from PBC were busted for disorderly charges on a Saturday night. One got bailed out that night, the other two were thrown in the paddy wagon to go to court at Monroe & Racine. There was an old man with them in the wagon and he couldn't breath. Everybody was pounding on the side and shouting at the pigs to stop and get the man to a hospital. The old man was moving his hands over his chest and trying to tell people he couldn't breath. The pigs never stopped, never did a thing. The PBC brothers tried to help him but he died by the time they got to court.

We don't know this dead brothers name. We do know the name of his killer—the pigs, the lackey dogs of the fascist, capitalist ruling class.

YOUNG LORD LEADER REFUSES DRAFT

Pablo 'Yoruba' Guzman, Minister of Information of the Young Lords Party is being charged with draft evasion. Yoruba was arraigned in federal district court in New York. The YLP is a revolutionary organization fighting for the liberation of Puerto Rico and self-determination for Puerto Ricans in the U.S. The YLP is not a pacifist organization - they believe that armed struggle is the only way Puerto Rico will ever be free. As Yoruba put it, 'The only army we will serve in is the Puerto Rican liberation army and we are already in it.'

PIGS MURDER TWO CHICANO'S

Last July the Los Angeles pigs vamped on an apartment in the Chicano (Mexican-American) community. The pigs claimed they were looking for a murderer, but they kicked in the door of the wrong apartment. Inside the apartment were some Chicanos who couldn't speak any English and had nothing to do with the murder. When the pigs kicked in the door the people in the apartment tried to split so the pigs began shooting and killed 2 Chicanos. "It was a mistake" the pigs said.

Because the people clearly saw how racist the pigs were, the 4 pigs involved were first charged with manslaughter and when that charge was dismissed the federal government charged these pigs with violating the civil rights of the 2 dead Chicanos. Of course, this was just another coverup job to make it look like there really is "justice" in the US. And, as usual, last month a federal jury found the 4 pigs innocent.

Of course, the people don't find those pigs innocent. Any time a pig shoots first and asks questions later he is guilty in the eyes of the people. Every one knows the pigs are guilty and maybe someone might just find these pigs in an alley some day, shot by "mistake".

STOP THE RACIST PIGS!
POWER TO THE PEOPLE!

CAPITALISM KILLS YOU

Are you working a job? If so you should check out what your future is under this capitalist right here in the good old US of A.

According to the Department of Labor 3 of every 4 young men and women who enter the job market in 1971 will be disabled before they retire. Great future, huh?

But theres more: every 8 minutes 1 person will be killed on the job, 148 workers will be seriously disabled, 500 workers will be hurt. Every day 55 workers die, 8,500 are disabled and more than 27,000 are hurt.

That means every year 15,000 workers are killed on the job, more than 2 million are disabled by occupational accidents, over ½million are disabled by occupational diseases and more than 7 million are hurt.

This is our future under the present economic and political system. It doesn't make sense to me for ¾ of us to be disabled for even $5 per hour. It just doesn't make sense. That is why I'm a revolutionary. I'd rather die or be disabled fighting for my people instead of in some pigs factory. Think about it!!!

ALL POWER TO THE PEOPLE

RENT STRIKE ALBANY PARK

The people of 4939 N. Kedzie are fed up with all they have had to take from their slum landlord! The whole building has been a death trap for everyone that lives there. Their problems are the same as all poor people are faced with every day of their lives. They have decided to stand up for their right to 'Decent housing - fit for human beings'.

After being jolted out of the bathroom by an electric shock from faulty wiring and after their baby girl was bitten in the cheek by a rat - they've gotten a lawyer to put some pressure on the landlord to fix it up. And in the mean time the tenants from the whole building are pickiting in front of the building until the repairs are made. This is a list of the complaints made against the landlord:

1. Plaster falling from walls and ceilings.
2. Electric circuits and outlets do now work properly.
3. Radiator without shut-off.
4. Leaky pipes between the walls.
5. Baby on the third floor bitten on the cheek by a rat.
6. Basement flooded with at least 2 inches of water.
7. No hot water at all.
8. Porch that is ready to fall apart.
9. No lights in the hallways or on the porches.
10. Floors warping from humidity coming up from basement.
11. Electric shocks when turning on bathroom light.

ROBERT SQUARE PARK

If you don't believe that newspapers and T V are prejudiced in favor of the pigs—check this out. One night some brothers and sisters were sitting up in the park with one bottle of wine. Some 16th district pigs came over to harrass them. The pigs asked whose wine it was and one of the brothers, who is 21, said it was his. The pigs said that he couldn't be drinking it by himself so he was under arrest for contributing to the delinquincy of a minor. Not believing this for real, the brother asked the pig what was happening and the pig began beating him and his girlfriend.

When the other people there started protesting, the pig reached for his gun.

The next day in the paper and on the radio there was a story about how some youths harrassed and beat a pig in the park.

When stories are such out and out lies about some small thing like that imagine what kind of lies the papers and T V tell about more important things.

Remember who owns the newspapers, T V and radio stations.... and the pigs.

S OURS TO BUILD!

PIGS RAPPING ON PIGS

Because of the role the police are expected to play---protectors of the rich and storm troopers of repression and fascism---there are many contradictions developing on the police forces of large cities. One of these contradictions is between black policemen and racist white pigs, particularly the officers. In Chicago this contradiction has been very clear because Renault Robinson, head of the Afro-American Patrolmens Association was suspended from the police force and arrested. Its clear that his suspension and arrest were for his activity with black policemen because until he became president of the Afro-American organization he had an excellent record.

Well, this contradiction is becoming more obvious on a national scale as black pigs from around the country are getting together to try to stop the racist fascist policies from completely destroying the black communities, specificly and the whole country generally. In Philadelphia black police organizations from New Jersey, New York, Michigan, Pennsylvania and Conneticut met. They supported such things as civilian review boards to check up on police brutality. They also voted "to take direct action against any law enforcement officer who abuses any citizen by power of his office", They didn't say what "direct action" they would take against brutal pigs.

RUA has been saying for a long time that police brutality was an everyday thing and that the only way to end it is for the people to control the police. We've pointed out the racist practices of the pig departments. Now black policemen are beginning to say the same thing. Everyone who has thought that we exaggerated or were just making it up should think more seriously about what we have been saying; If part of the problem becomes part of the solution, as the black policemen did in Philadelphia, then you know the problem must be very serious. It is and fascist, racist pigs must be stopped. NOW!

PEOPLE'S VET DOGS AND CATS

Last Saturday Dr. Allen Frank, a people's veteranarian and over a dozen other people from the neighborhood, gave free rabies shots to over 200 dogs and cats belonging to people from the Lakeview and Lincoln Avenue communities. The free shots were given, behind the Rising Up Angry office, for two reasons. Rabies is fatal (no cure) and must be controlled and because the police arrest people whose pets are not currently vaccinated. This hits the poor people hardest because it's harder for them to get the $6 to $12 to pay the vet for the shot that costs the vet 25 cents. As a result, it's the same people who don't have the money in the first place that get a $200 fine slapped on them or 6 months in jail, or both, for not getting the shots. When the pigs and pig cadets come around the neighborhood this month, a couple hundred animal owners are in the clear.

ABOUT YOUR DOG OR CAT:

1. Rabies is fatal (no cure)
2. The law says every dog over 4mos. mus have a rabies shot.
3. You can't get a dog licence unless the dog has its shot
4. All dogs must have a license
5. Fine for no license - possible $200 and/or 6 months

CORP – ARMITAGE

The pigs have really been hasseling the people by the gas station lately. The usual harrassment is the pigs come and say "Get outta here" and then maybe pick up a couple of brothers, threaten them and then cut them loose. But the other night, Tuesday, some brothers and sisters walked up to the corner and the minute they got there – here come the bad assed pigs. No one thought much about it, figuring it was going to be the usual scene. But these gung-ho dogs jumped out and busted 6 brothers for loitering. LOITERING! When you've just walked out to the corner. Far out!

And since then, the pigs have really been on the move, following people down the street to make sure they don't stop and talk to their partners. So lots of people who really hadn't believed about the harrassment or thought about fascism are beginning to get an education – thanks to the pigs. And those sisters and brothers who have been rapping revolution are saying "I told you so!"

The time for talking is getting shorter. Its time to start doing something about this harrassment.
NO MORE PIGS IN OUR COMMUNITY!!!

THE BEAT OF T

PEOPLE'S M

The first "People's Music/People's Dance" was a tremendous success. Over 700 sisters and brothers from neighborhoods throughout the city turned out for live music and free food at a fair price. People are bored, tired of hanging out in the same place and getting hassled by pigs. To hear live music usually means rip-off prices, and sitting in seats at great distances from the bands, and good local Chicago bands don't get a chance to play for the people. So, Rising Up Angry initiated getting a people's thing together.

The door at the IWW hall had to be closed several times during the night, with over 200 people being turned away. Sorry. The pigs came by several times, but finally stopped hasseling people in the front. The two plainclothes pigs that got inside were escorted out shortly after their entrance.

A lot of people made it possible: the two bands, Taxi and Mountain Bus kicked out heavy dancing jams. The Seed helped with the publicity; Red Star Press did the printing; Euphoria Blimpworks did the

PEOPLE'S M

PEOPLE GOT IT TOGETHER

On Sunday, August 23, block parties were held at Sunnyside & Racine in Uptown and at Kenmore & Diversey in Lincoln Park —Lakeview. Both events reflected the spirit and energy that people in the communities put into them.

At both there was an abundance of Free Food, Free Clothes, from the Rising Up Angry Free Clothing for Children Program, and good music. At Kenmore & Diversey WITCH kicked out the jams and in Uptown it was the Gatling Goats. The people made these parties happen and the People turned out for a good time together. pedro's poetry

The best way to listen to Pedro Pietri's poetry is with a group of friends. You will laugh together and cry together as you hear Pedro talk about people we know, about our families, our friends, ourselves.

Armed with a shopping bag of dreams, fights, lottery numbers that never win, he goes about interpreting the reality of the Puerto Rican in New York.

Pedro Pietri was born in Ponce, on March 21, 1944. At the age of 3, he left, or was forced to leave, the island and was too small to be heard complaining about the rats in his crib, the lead paint on illegal walls for which lagal money is paid to the landlord, to the capitalist. He was raised under the same conditions that all poor Puerto Ricans are forced to live under.

He graduated from high school and went to work- stock boy, supply clerk, messenger boy, dishwasher, car washer, taxi driver, Blood Bank victim, psychiatrists assistant and in 1967 he was drafted to go to Vietnam. Later, after he'd returned, he met the sisters and brothers of the Young Lords Party in the first takeover of the People's Church. Pedro had been raised going to this church. He came back and took a part in the takeover.

It was after Pedro worked in the garment industry that he began to seek revenge with his poetry for all the abuses that are committed against our Puerto Rican nation and against all the poor of the world.

Pedro Pietri is the voice of those who know no other future but Long Island Cemetery, Lincoln Hospital, or the 40th precinct where they take the poor and book us.

Of his poetry, Pedro says: "A poem is produced from actual life. You don't have talent simply for writing a poem; you must be willing to protect what you write with your life. What produces that inspiration that drove you to write did not come from your imagination, but from the conditions under which you live in El Barrio, the Lower East Side, the Bronx, Fort Greene, Chicago, Philadelphia, Bridgeport, wherever it may be. If you want poetry, look around you. Wherever you look, there is poetry. It's not enough to read; you have to work, live, love, eat, sleep, and get up with the people and never separate yourself from the people. A poem is written by being among the people."

We are reprinting this story and Pedro's poems from the Young Lords Party newspaper, Palante.

These brothers are all veterans of the U.S. military and know how rotten it is for both the GIs and the Indo-chinese people. Now that they are out, they recognize that their struggle is the same as the brothers and sisters who are still inside.

GI'S TELL NO LIES

CAMP LE JEUNE, N.C.

This is how a brother, recently back from Nam, describes his new "home".

While stationed at Camp Le Jeune, N.C. for the past 3 months I've noticed that it has quieted down quite a bit from the summer of 1969 when they had a big race riot down there. There are, however, a few lifers and a lot of southerners who are very much prejudiced and let the brothers (black and white) know it. Its pretty hard to get together because as soon as a few brothers get together then the lifers get all uptight and call the MP's. Lifers are afraid of anyone getting together cause then they figure its either a riot or someone dealing dope.

Camp Le Jeune is the worst place I've ever been in my life. All we do all day is sit around listening to some asshole giving bullshit classes on military tactics and how to become a "liberating"capitalist and save all those poor helpless countries from the commies. I wonder who should be saving the countries from who? The company I'm in is mostly shorttimers who get out in June to August. Now why should we have to listen to that shit, they maybe trying to convince them what a tough, righteous place we live in, but with people like that running it—its fucked up.

The judicial section is the closest thing to Nazism that I've seen yet. In their courts your guilty and that's all there is to it. Even when your going up for a court-martial they have a script to follow—just like a play. It doesn't matter to the lifers what happens to the person as long as that pay check comes in, I've even heard lifers joke about the sentences that people get. It sure is humorous when a person is sent to the concentration camp. Even the MP's are fascists. No other place has pigs going out giving people tickets for stuff like haircuts, unshined brass, hands in pockets, etc. It seems to me that its like going a lot overboard.

Once in a while, there comes a time when a brother can get back at a lifer, this is really cool but has many disadvantages because as soon as all the other pig lifers hear about it then they are out to get this brother no matter what or who gets in their way. I've known lifers to set a brother up by planting dope in his possession, then bust him.

A few brothers got together and started this paper called "ON Korps" which is pretty good. As soon as the lifers got wind of it, they all got together over some booze and then proceeded to work out a plan to save the pure minds of their marines from this "communist propaganda." The plan they came up with was to forbid this paper from being distributed on base. When this didn't work too well they decided to try and stop the people from reading it by taking the copies they found away from the people. This still didn't work too well because we brothers like to know whats going on and no lifer is going to stop us from getting educated. The good General then announced that if the editors of this paper cleaned it up, to HIS approval, and then bring him a copy to read, and then approved it, he would put his "Good General"seal of approval on it. Now anyone in this "Croch" knows that if he approves it, the paper isn't worth much as it won't be able to have info on marches or meetings in it; so far the editors haven't done it.

Although there are quite a few brothers of the revolution at the camp it is very hard to get together as CID and other pig groups like to plant agents in the barracks. It sure can turn into a hassle if you rap something to the wrong person. In fact the pig lifers hassled a buddy of mine for reading "Do It" by Jerry Rubin. It's time to stop talking and "Do It."

I guess this is a good place to stop as I could go on forever about this typical Facist Amerikan concentration camp. I hope that truths like this reach our brothers and sisters before they make a mistake and join it.

POWER TO THE PEOPLE!!!

FREE BILLY SMITH

In the April 24th issue of Angry we told you about how Pvt.; Billy Smith had been charged with fragging 2 officers in Ben Whou, Vietnam. Brother Billy is now being held in solitary confinement (in the box) in the Ft. Ord stockade. Hopefully, he will be out of the box in August when his trial starts. Until then, though, no one can get word in or out to our righteous brother:

Billy Smith should be set free! If he did frag those lifer-pigs that's right-on because the lifers are our enemy. Not the Vietnamese people! So we've got to do everything that we can to make sure Billy gets back out with the people. We need him. He is charged with:, 2 counts of premeditated murder (of 2 lieutenants)– 2 counts of attempted murder against a captain and a first sargent. 1 count of assault (of another officer wounded in the explosion) + 2 counts of assault against MPs

FORT ORD, RIOT

The army has been trying to change its image—to become hip. So as part of the Volunteer Army program, the brass at Ft. Ord sponsored a rock concert featuring Canned Heat, Southwind and Abdullah. Because the brass wanted to make a good showing for the press, many of the soldiers were marched in uniform to the concert by their CO's. There were "crowd monitering" and "crowd control" personnell with walkie talkies and MP's with weapons all over the place. This definetly wasn't a good vibes 'trip'.

During the tension-filled concert a black GI was attacked by a white GI. A crowd quickly formed and the MP's charged the crowd beating anyone in their way. When the MP's started to arrest people, the GI's left racism behind and started throwing bottles at the MPigs. So then the pigs started firing their 45's over the GI's heads.

Then the brothers, both black and white, moved to the Drill Sgt. Training School and set fire to the supply room. The MP's couldn't make any arrests because the brothers had blocked off the building and threw rocks and bottles at fire trucks.

Later on about 5:30 in the afternoon the crowd threw rocks and bottles at a Greyhound bus and eventually turned it over. In the 4th Brigade Area a PX and a snack bar were broken into. The EDC (end of course) building was broken into and the GI's threw the typewriters out the window.

Quite a few brothers were injured by the brutal MP's. But it was a clear victory for the people. It was out of sight!

HANRAHAN'S HOAX

On December 4th, 1969 around 4 in the morning, 17 State's Attorney's Police shot their way into the apartment of Fred Hampton, Chairman of the Illinois Branch of the Black Panther Party. They fired at least 99 shots with machine guns, shotguns, carbines and revolvers killing Mark Clark, wounding several other brothers & sisters who were in the apartment at the time & murdering Chairman Fred while he was still asleep.

The People were shocked. Thousands of people went thru the blood soaked apartment in the days following the murders to try to piece together the unbelievable story Hanrahan & his lackey's were trying to force down the people's throats. Investigations were made of the apartment by many different sources and they all showed that the Panthers could not have possibly fired more than 1 shot. This was not a shootout—it was a deliberate assassination—an obvious display of fascism. What the State did to cover up their actions shows very clearly how the government carries out fascist activities under the guise of trying to protect democracy.

The surviving occupants of the apartment were arrested and charged with attempted murder. The pigs had to say that the occupants of the apartment were trying to kill innocent police (as they broke into the apartment with machine guns at 4 in the morning). Hanrahan then went on television and showed pictures of bullet holes that supposedly had come from the Panthers. These pictures were also printed in the Chicago Tribune. The pictures turned out to be pictures not of bullet holes but of nail heads. Hanrahan was caught in his lie and made to look like a fool.

The Cook County Coroner made a quick and routine investigation of the murders and decided that it was justifiable homicide. That whitewash was not surprising because it was the pigs investigating the pigs. Then there was a federal grand jury to investigate to see if anyone's civil rights had been denied. They got testimony that pointed out that more than civil rights had been denied. some kind of report criticizing, in general, the way things were handled, but no indictment was returned. In other words, the Federal grand jury didn't think that there was enough evidence to try anyone for breaking the law.

These absurd attempts to cover up the crime satisfied very few people. So Judge Power (an old buddy and law partner of Mayor Daley) called for a special Cook County Grand Jury and, so that no one would think that it was fixed, they hired Barnabas Sears to be the special prosecutor. Sears is known for his honesty and he's not connected with the Daley machine. Well, the whole thing kind of backfired in Power's face. The grand jury decided to indict Hanrahan and some other officials of some minor charge like obstruction of justice. But the grand jury didn't agree with what Daley, Power and Hanrahan wanted it to say and they tried to stop the indictment from being made public. They used every legal maneuver possible to delay it. But, finally, the Illinois Supreme Court forced Power to open the sealed indictment at a special hearing last Tuesday.

Mitchell Ware, who was chief pig of the Illinois Bureau of Investigation, quit his job as chief of the I.B.I. to be a special investigator and friend of the court. His job is to look into whether Sears handled the investigation in exactly the correct and proper manner. Ware is to investigate the investigation to try to bring in evidence to quash the indictments. Daley doesn't take to Hanrahan and some of his other buddies being brought to trial.

The question here is that of control and power. It is said that the courts are impartial and that their job is to make sure that justice is carried out. What becomes evident is that courts are controlled by the same group of people that control the rest of the country. Some people are safe from the punishment of the courts while other people are continually victims of the courts injustice. The courts are supposed to make sure that public officials carry out their tasks properly. The truth is that Daley can use, and does use, the coutrs to protect and preserve his political power.

The fascists in power aren't into calling themselves fascists. They go around masquerading as the protectors tect people's rights when it suits their purpose. When a Panther goes on trial there is no investigation of the Grand Jury. Panthers, Black people, all non-white and non-rich people are railroaded through the courts. And the reason we call this system fascist is that there is one group of people who control all aspects of our lives.

You see, there's a law against murder. But, if the fascists want to commit murder, they can. They can murder Fred Hampton & Mark Clark. . But, in order not to enrage the people too much, they say they will investigate the matter. And then, after a reasonable amount of time, they find that the murder was justified. But in this case they got caught in their own contradictions. They tried to make it look a little bit honest. And that's what happened—it came out a little bit honest. Hanrahan didn't get indicted for murder like he should have but he was made to look bad. He won't go to jail like he should but his political career is hurting. So Daley & Power are even trying to cover this up, which exposes the total power that they have.

They control the schools, hospitals, courts, prisons etc. There is no one to check up on their decisions or their practice. Fascists do what they want, they do it "legally" and there is no one to "legally" stop them.

The situation now is, the state's attorney is under indictment and he refuses to resign his position. He won't even take a leave of absence, as the bar association suggests. The Superintendent of Police, Conlisk, is a co-conspirator. He not only won't resign or take a leave of absence - he isn't sure he's even going to suspend the pigs that were named in the indictments. These murderers are still on the streets.

What we have is a case of the pig judging the pig. With Judge Power in charge of this case it's like Hanrahan trying himself. The family of Fred Hampton,or the Black Panther Party, or just representatives of the Black Community should try Hanrahan. Then there could be some justice. There can be no justice in the courts until the people are the judges.

NO POWER TO JUDGE POWER!
ALL POWER TO THE PEOPLE!

In July, President Nixon announced that he was going to visit the People's Republic of China (Red China) before May of 1972. The country freaked—for over 20 years the US government has told us nothing of China except it was a 'yellow peril' or 'the sleeping dragon' or 'the mysterious eastern enemy of the US' or 'the cause of all the problems in the world." Some people were happy Nixon was going, thinking his trip would end the war in Indochina and bring about world peace. Other people thought Nixon was 'selling out to the commies.' Most people were confused.

Until the trip actually happens no one will know for sure what will come out of it or even what motivated it. However, some of the reasons Nixon decided to visit the New China at this time are clear. For one, Nixon acts like he can end the war in Indochina by travelling to China. He thinks he can avoid embarrassment of having to negotiate with 'small powers' like the Democratic Republic of Vietnam(North Vietnam) and the Provisional Revolutionary Government of South Vietnam(Viet Cong.). And Nixon timed the announcement of the trip so he could ignore the new 7 point peace plan put forward by the Vietnamese on July 1, and still act like he really wanted peace. But, the only way Nixon will achieve peace in Vietnam, according to both the Chinese and the Vietnamese, is by dealing directly with the Vietnamese. Secondly, Nixon wants to be re-elected in 1972 and with all of the anti-war sentiment in the country he has to come off like he's doing all he can to promote peace. And you can bet that his trip to China will come at the time of the Democratic primary elections. And that way, newspapers all over the country will have Nixon's name in them more than the names of the Democratic presidential nominees.

But what this trip to China has meant to most of the people here is that we're finally learning a little more about New China. All the major newspapers are buying stories that blow away all the stereotypes and lies that we've been told about China for so long.

Nixon's visit to China shows that the US government has been forced by the world situation to deal with China, from a position of weakness.

Workers exchange experience in applying Chairman Mao's works.

WHAT IS CHINA REALLY ABOUT?

In 1949 after fighting the Japanese fascist army in World War II and then the reactionary Chinese forces of Chiang Kai-shek(called the Koumintang), the Red Army under the leadership of the Communist Party and Mao Tse Tung liberated China. The People's Republic of China is the biggest nation in the world with 750 million people and at the time of liberation China was an underdeveloped nation. Most of the people were peasants who had barely eked out a living on the land. Millions had died of starvation during famines, mothers had to sell their daughters as slaves in order to get food for the rest of their starving families, and there was little industry and very few technicians in the country. When the Communist Party won leadership, they set as their main task, building China into a well-developed socialist country. The workers and peasants were the leading force in the Chinese revolution and after seizing power began developing their country to meet the needs of all the people of China.

Just off the coast of mainland China is the island of Taiwan, which has always been a part of China. But while the people's army was seizing power on the mainland, Chiang Kai-shek's reactionary forces (supplied by the US) took over Taiwan. To this day, Taiwan is the only part of China which hasn't been liberated because US money and US military power has preserved Chiang Kai-shek in power. (The US has spent $4 billion dollars in economic and military aid plus there are 3 air bases that can deliver nuclear weapons and 9,000 men plus the 7th fleet.) This preservation of a reactionary army in the midst of revolutionary people is a threat and an insult to the Chinese people and consequently, the reunification of Taiwan with the rest of China is a major source of tension between the US and China.

While the US was strengthening the fascist regime on Taiwan, the people on the mainland were building China into a socialist country through co-operation, hard work and correct political guidance from Mao Tse Tung's thought.

In two issues of ANGRY(vol-3,no.2 and vol-2, no.10) we have explained how New China has dealt with medical care and with industrialization and pollution. So we won't go into that here; instead we will explain some of the other gains made since the revolution in China.

One of the biggest problems in China before the revolution was hunger and starvation. After the revolution the peasants formed co-operatives to make better use of their resources and to help each other survive. While in the 1960's there was an overall decline in food production in the underdeveloped world of Asia, Africa and Latin America, China's food production increased rapidly. To give you an example of the difference in people's lives since the revolution check this out: the harvest of 1960-1961 was the worst in 100 years in China, but no one starved. A leading economist said: "Bad harvests, which as is well-known, caused death by starvation to tens of millions of Chinese throughout China's history, were on this occasion, overcome and even defeated without any starvation." The reason no one starved in 1960-61 is because in a co-operative society the people shared the food rather than having some people eat a lot and others starve. In fact, during the bad harvest she still had a 7% higher food production than India, a country much the same as China except it isn't socialist.

So China under socialism has eliminated starvation, a major step for any underdeveloped country. Western reporters point out, though, that China has done much more than eliminated hunger. China's industrialization is growing rapidly, there is no unemployment, no crime in the streets, the cities are clean and not falling apart, she has developed muclear power and most importantly, the people are happy and involved in the running of their country.

On all levels of the society, the average person in China has a real involvment in running the country. Committees of workers, technicains and managers run the factories; peasants run the farms; students, teachers and parents run the schools. Mao has always said to respect and trust the people—to let them run it. And the leadership of New China has never been afraid to talk to the people and learn from the people. For example, during the cultural revolution, Chou En-lai, the Premier of China, was surrounded by half a million ultra leftist Red Guards. They were trying to seize the files of the Central Committee, the leading body of the Communist Party. Chou went out among these Red Guards and talked to them in small groups, day and night, for 2 days and persuaded them to leave. He didn't call out the troops—he talked to his people. Can you imagine Daley trying to talk to people who were trying to seize city hall?

Another important aspect of the leadership of New China is that they are devoted to the total liberation of all people. Mao has always felt that every country, big or small, and every group of people have to define their own terms for their freedom. Because of this principle China won't negotiate with the US to end the war in Indochina—that is for those countries to do for themselves. And when Chou hosted James Reston, a reporter for the N.Y. Times, his first toast was for the liberation of women.

Another myth we have been fed about China is that they have the nuclear bomb and the world is on the brink of destruction. But Chou En Lai has stated China's nuclear policy very plainly:

> "We manufacture nuclear weapons because we are forced to do so in order to break the nuclear monopoly. And our aim is the complete prohibition and thorough destruction of nuclear weapons. And so every time we make a test, we declare we will never be the first to use nuclear weapons . . .We are calling for the convening of a conference of all countries of the world big or small because all countries of the world, regardless of their size, should be equal—for the purpose of reaching an agreement on the complete prohibition and thorough destruction of nuclear weapons, and as a first step, on the nonuse of nuclear weapons. Once everyone agrees on the nonuse of nuclear weapons then what will be the need for the production of nuclear weapons?"

Nothing in Mao's thought or teaching, ever called for a war against the US or for a war of foreign conquest and nothing in Mao's ideology places any faith in nuclear bombs.

So the China that Nixon will visit is a rapidly developing revolutionary country. It's a country where people are working together, rather than competing with each other. It's a country that has begun to eliminate many of the problems that still plague the rest of the world (including the US)—like hunger, militarism, the unequal distribution of wealth, pollution, v.d., poor medical care. The reason that China has developed so rapidly both economically and culturally is due to putting the teachings of Chairman Mao into practice. And the reason that Chairman Mao is a leader in China is because he listens tc the needs and ideas of the people. China is a socialist country working toward communism.

Just because Nixon is going to China doesn't mean Mao has become a capitalist and suddenly "seen the light". On the contrary, Mao and China have always stated that they have nothing against the American people, only against the American government. Nixon's visit to China shows that the US government has been forced by the world situation to deal with China, from a position of weakness. Nixon's visit gives us, the American people a chance to re-examine China. When we look at China we will see a way of thinking and acting that will help us begin to solve some of our problems here—not the other way around.

Changing the face of nature with the stubborn spirit of the Foolish Old Man Who Removed the Mountain.

The Wage Freeze

"Just as soon as you get a free hand, Digby, scratch my back..."

A couple weeks ago "Tricky Dick" Nixon announced his new economic plans, and the stock market soared to dizzy new heights. Businessmen were delerious with delight. Never in recent times had the government come out with such a clear plan to mess over the people and give away millions to big business.

What was the big crisis anyway? We thought it was that unemployment has doubled in the last 2+1/2 years and if we are lucky enough to find a job-our paycheck buys less than it did 5 years ago. But we were wrong. The way the government looks at it the crisis comes from the fact that the big monopolies were not making their usual millions in profits. The capitalists are always running off at the mouth about "free enterprise" and "competition" According to their jive, capitalism is supposed to be the best system because companies compete with each other to make the best product at the lowest cost. In reality, big companies hate competition and get together to fix prices and turn out shoddy goods that fall apart so you have to buy new ones.

In the last few years, German and Japanese capitalists have attacked U.S. capitalists by invading U.S. markets with better made products at lower prices. This put American capitalists uptight.--they call it"unfai competition". With all the Volkswagens and Sony radios taking over the markets, U.S. companies raised their prices more to keep profits up. But with higher prices they sold even less and finally a lot of them had to shut down for a while--layoffs.

Now comes big Dick to the rescue. Not to the rescue of the poor and the unemployed, but to the rescue of corporation profits. First, Dick slapped a new 10% tax on all imports to keep people here from buying less expensive foreign made goods. Then he devalued the dollar with respect to other currencies. This makes U.S. goods cheaper in foreign countries (but not at home). This is to help big U.S. companies sell more products abroad. He repealed the federal sales tax on automobiles to "stimulate the automotive industry." This is the old theory of what's good for General Motors is good for everybody. Then old Dick gave the capitalists a 10% tax credit on new investments. What this means is that if a company spends a million dollars to build a new factory it can deduct $100,000 from their tax bill for that year! Finally the wage-price freeze for 3 months. (There is evidence that Nixon informed big business in advance so they could raise their prices before the freeze. In most cases the new wages increases that had been won by unions will not go into effect. However, price hikes announced before Aug. 15 will be in effect.

Under this plan, only the incomes of working people and people on welfare will be frozen. Capitalists are free to go on increasing their incomes as much as they can. The wage freeze does not apply to profits, stock dividends, interest rates, expense accounts, and so on! The plan is also a massive strike breaking scheme. Companies where strikes are in progress are gleefully telling their workers that they might as well come back to work at the old wages because under Nixon's new order it is illegal for them to grant wage increases! And it came in time to keep the teachers from getting raises but tuitions went up.

The idea behind Nixon's plan is what economists call the "trickle down theory of prosperity." Under the trickle down theory, when times are bad what you do is try to get the big companies prosperous again, that is, you try to help the rich get richer. Because, according to the theory, if big business is prosperous there will be more jobs and the prosperity will "trickle down" to the little man. In reality, though, big business pockets the money and just takes a leak on the little man.

Nixon alone cannot be blamed for this madness. Nor can we say it is the Republicans. In fact, Nixon simply did what all the Democrats have been demanding for months, and the Democrats were the first to praise him for doing it. But this is hardly surprising when we remember that both parties represent the wealthy and compete only in seeing who can do the best job of keeping the rich in power.
